

11/29/20 -Today is the beginning of Advent! Gather with/call a friend or family member and share where you found God today, and consider how you can continue to recognize the Lord throughout the Advent Season.

11/30/20 - Reach out to a loved one today and talk about one idea you have for keeping Advent.

12/1/20 - Make a donation to one of your favorite charities or nonprofit organization.

12/2/20 -Today, reflect on five examples of “good fruit” that came from your efforts.

12/3/20 -Spend 10 minutes in quiet prayer reflecting on where God may have been reaching out to you today.

12/4/20 - Today, make a list of everything you are looking forward to this season.

12/5/20 - Participate in a Holiday activity with in your community, whether it be with your church, school, office or neighborhood.

12/6/20 - Today, say a special prayer, thanking God for his love and guidance.

12/7/20 - Take time to read through the Christmas story in Luke 2.

12/8/20 - Do something for somebody who isn't so fortunate this season. Call someone who might be lonely, donate to a homeless shelter, or send a care package to a service person stationed overseas.

12/9/20 - Reflect on your favorite recipe today, and share it (and the story or tradition behind it) with someone new.

12/10/20 - Whenever you find yourself waiting in a line (even in your car, on the phone, etc) today, use the opportunity to say a quick prayer for each person in front of you.

12/11/20 - Write out Christmas cards to friends. Let them know how grateful you are for their friendship!

12/12/20 - Today, share joy with someone who might be struggling this time of year.

12/13/20 - Write an encouraging note (or text) to a friend, family member, and co-worker. Something small to get them through the day.

12/14/20 - Today, let go of the pressure to find the perfect present, or feel a certain way this season. Spend time in quiet prayer, meditating on the real reason for our celebrations.

12/15/20 - It's okay to be excited the season! If you are feeling anxious or impatient today, inhale for five seconds, then exhale for another five. Say a prayer for peace.

12/16/20 - Write a short card to Christ, welcoming him into your home and heart.

12/17/20 - Take it back to childhood and read your favorite children's book or watch your favorite Christmas movie.

12/18/20 - Listen to some hopeful music or sing along to some of your favorite Christmas jams at home or while you are out running errand.

12/19/20 - Practice hospitality today! Bring some surprise Christmas treats to a neighbor or friend.

12/20/20 - Reflect on your favorite holiday memory and share it with your family or a friend.

12/21/20 - Today, reflect on your blessings and take time in pray to thank God for them.

12/22/20 - Sit somewhere in your home and imagine inviting Christ as a guest. Think of what you might do to prepare.

12/23/20 - Sit in silence and reflect on how much the birth of Jesus Christ changed the world. What other mysteries might silently be at work in your life?

12/24/20 - Today, do a secret act of kindness for someone.

12/25/20 - Call a church member and wish them a Merry Christmas!
